CORRS
CHAMBERS

Date: Wednesday, 17 July 2019

Time: 6pm

STUDENTS OF LAW AND INCLUSIVENESS: WHERE TO FROM HERE?

Now that the stress of clerkship applications are over, where do we go from here?

Our guest speakers will answer your questions about everything you can expect as you approach the end of law school, and importantly, how they themselves found their passion in the law. We will also explore how embracing diversity is becoming a key to success, for both lawyers, and the industry in general.

Join AALA and Melissa Liu, Associate, Corrs Chambers Westgarth, and a panel of in-house and private practice solicitors and barristers to delve into your questions about where to from here?

Find out who will be on the panel by registering your interest and submitting your panel questions here:

Limited spots are available and registrations will close at 5pm, 12 July
